Chuck McGee

A Marine Corps. veteran, Chuck is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire with a BS in Community Development. He began his career in politics in 1992 with the UNH College Republicans.

Chuck was elected as Area Vice Chairman of the NH GOP in 1995, serving Merrimack and Belknap Counties and the City of Concord.

His work has spanned a variety of candidates and organizations and states. Including such clients and employment as: New Hampshire Republican State Committee, U.S. Congressman Bill Zeff, Zeff for Governor, Bob Dole for President, Dan Evans for Delegate (Virginia), Colorado Citizens for Right to Work (with volunteer work for Marilyn Musgrave for State Senate), Montana Right to Work, New England Citizens for Right to Work and Citizens for a Sound Economy (CSE).

In 2003, Chuck shared the New Hampshire Young Republican's Gipper Award with Kerry Marsh following his two years as Executive Director of the NH GOP.

Since 2004 he has provided creative and strategic direct mail services for Republican clients across New England and the country.

Kerry Marsh

In 2003, Kerry graduated Summa Cum Laude from Keene State College with a BA in Economics and minors in Political Science and History.

Kerry's political experience began as a volunteer for the McCain for President Campaign in 2000 and volunteer for former Senate President Tom Eaton's first campaign.

Kerry's first professional political experience was as the Deputy Field Director for the Keough for Governor campaign in 2002. Her work earned her the NH Young Republican's 2003 Gipper Award for the outstanding Young Republican of the year.

In January of 2003, Kerry became the youngest County Committee chairman in the history of New Hampshire when she was elected to lead the Cheshire County Republican Committee at the age of 21.

After graduating from Keene State College, Kerry joined the NH House of Representatives' Majority Office staff working as a Legislative Assistant to Speaker Gene G. Chandler.

Kerry is currently the Chair of the NH Young Republicans and has been with Spectrum since 2006.

Jonathan Page

"Jonathan brings a wealth of campaign and political experience to our team and we are honored that he'll be on board helping Republicans to victory this fall," said McGee. "As we continue our national expansion, Jonathan's talents and expertise will be a great asset."

Jonathan Page has worked for Republicans at the local, state and federal levels and was most recently with the Romney for President campaign. In college he interned for US Senator Warren Rudman and later worked in the research office of the Republican National Committee in Washington, D.C.

Upon his return to New Hampshire Jonathan spent seven years with the New Hampshire State Senate and later worked for Keough for Governor and managed State Senator Ted Gatsas' re-election in 2004.

Chuck McGee and Kerry Marsh currently lead the political division at Spectrum Marketing Companies offering printing, signs, campaign collateral and direct mail to local, county, state, federal and presidential Republican candidates across the country.

"This is an exciting time to be joining Spectrum," said Page. "They are earning a reputation as the premier Republican direct-mail firm in the Northeast and I look forward to helping take them to the next level."
